We are at 10 to noon AKST. 11 to 1 PST. We probably won't take all the two hours this time.

Phil: Hi, this conference loaded onto my calendar as Noon to 2 pm Thursday. I'm uncertain as to how my calendar program translated the time (my Mac runs on Mountain Time, I am physically located in Pacific Time zone this week, and the meeting is Alaska time....you get the picture). Please take a moment to confirm the time by a quick email when you can, thanks

Chris
